TRAVEL DOCUMENTS—IMPORTANT!

For travel to Bolivia, you must have a passport with at least six months of validity beyond your date of departure and two blank visa pages side by side.

United States citizens traveling to Bolivia for tourism must obtain a tourist visa, which is valid for 10 years. With this visa, you may stay a maximum of 30 calendar days per trip, not to exceed 90 days total per year.

You can obtain a Bolivia tourist visa upon your arrival at the airport in Santa Cruz or in advance through any Bolivian Consulate in the United States.

Our office will assist you with the required documentation for the visa.

GETTING THERE

Boliviana de Aviación offers daily non-stop overnight flights from Miami each evening, arriving Santa Cruz the next morning. COPA and United Airlines offer one-stop flight service from Houston and Miami. Flights back to Miami usually operate early morning or late evening.

We strongly suggest that you allow plenty of time between flights to make your connections.

TRAVEL SEQUENCE/LOGISTICS

For shooting-only trips: Guests are met upon arrival in Santa Cruz and transferred 1.5 hours via private vehicle to the hunting lodge. You arrive in time for lunch and an afternoon hunt. On the last shooting day, after the morning hunt, guests eat lunch then drive back to Santa Cruz to either their dayroom at the Camino Real or Los Tajibos Hotel (if the flight home is late that night), or for an overnight (if their flight home is the next morning).

For fishing-only trips: Guests are met upon arrival in Santa Cruz and transferred to the charter aircraft terminal for a two-hour flight to Caño Negro Lodge. Arrival, weather permitting, is in plenty of time for mid-morning fishing, lunch and an afternoon of fishing. On the last day, guests will have breakfast and a two-hour air charter back to Santa Cruz to either their dayroom at the Camino Real or Los Tajibos Hotel (if the flight home is late that night), or for an overnight (if their flight home is the next morning).

For fishing-shooting combos: Guests are met upon arrival in Santa Cruz and transferred to the charter aircraft terminal for a two-hour flight to Caño Negro Lodge, arriving in time for mid-morning fishing, lunch and afternoon fishing. On the last day, guests have breakfast a two-hour air charter to Las Palomas lodge, arriving in time for lunch and an afternoon of shooting. On the last shooting day, after the morning hunt, guests eat lunch then drive back to Santa Cruz to either their dayroom at the Camino Real or Los Tajibos hotel (if the flight home is late that night), or for an overnight (if their flight home is the next morning).

- Division of Special Operations

Additionally, International Mountain Guides offers a travel insurance product that integrates Global Rescue's advisory and evacuation services with the financial protection of a comprehensive travel insurance program. Signature Travel Insurance, guarantees that a trip is covered no matter what happens, and features the following highlights:

- CANCEL-FOR-ANY-REASON BENEFIT
- Trip cancellation insured up to $100,000
- Up to $2,500 for lost luggage/baggage delay
- $100,000 emergency medical/dental coverage

Rod & Gun Resources recommends a Global Rescue Membership with Signature Travel Insurance for your next trip. Visit <http://www.globalrescue.com/rodandgun/> or call 617-549-4200 for more information.

BAGGAGE REQUIREMENTS

The air charter crew will weigh your bags before you board the charter flight. A 40-pound maximum is allowed – you will be asked to lighten your load if your luggage is overweight.

It is requested that everyone bring soft-sided bags with minimal casual clothing, one gun case (if you bring your own guns) and one rod case. Please do not bring hard luggage or coolers – they do not fit well on the charter aircraft. All lodges offer daily laundry service, so keep clothing to a minimum.

IMPORTANT: Pack medications and two full changes of tropical clothing in your carryon luggage, and travel in fishing/tennis shoes.

LODGES & ACCOMMODATIONS

The Shooting: The Molinas offer guests two lovely lodging options—their original Bolivian-tropical-style lodge, Las Palomas, or their stylish new addition, Los Guadales lodge and spa. Both offer well-appointed suites and guestrooms with private baths, massage room, beautiful pool and adjacent palapa bar, Jacuzzi, satellite television, internet access, and other amenities that make for a wonderfully luxurious stay. The lodges were constructed specifically as dove hunting headquarters and are located close to huge concentrations of birds.

The Fishing: Caño Negro Lodge is a traditional wood-constructed facility on the Rio Caño/San Simon system. The facility features four spacious, double occupancy, air-conditioned cabañas with private baths, large dining and bar/conversation areas, and a lovely view overlooking adjacent spring-fed lagoons. Please note that the generator is turned off each night from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. Late evening and early morning temperatures are usually in the mid to upper 60s but will occasionally reach the mid 70s.

FOOD & BEVERAGES

The lodges provide both quality and ample meals throughout your stay—particularly at Las Palomas, which is known for fantastic food. A breakfast buffet is typically served from 6:30 to 7:00 each morning. Pastries, eggs, toast, fresh fruit, bacon, cereal and fresh coffee are standard fare. Lunch is a sit-down field barbeque at Las Palomas (or guests can return to the lodge). At the fishing lodge, guests return to the lodge for lunch or may request a cooler with various cold cuts, cheeses, breads, fruit, etc. for lunch on the river. Appetizers are served when all guests return from the day's events, followed by dinner. A mixture of Bolivian and American foods is featured in the dinner menus. Fresh fish, beef, pork, and chicken are accompanied by delicious soups, salads, rice, bread and mixed vegetables. The camps supply bottled water, soft drinks, local liquor, beer (limited for safety reasons to six per person during the hunting/fishing day) and wine with dinner. Bring your own specialty liquor.

POWER SOURCE/BATTERIES

All lodges have diesel generators that produce 220-volt electricity. You may need a converter (depending on your electrical device) and you will need an adapter – European two-prong and three-prong plug ins. The generators at the fishing lodge go off at 10 p.m. and are turned back on at 6 a.m.

LANGUAGE

Spanish is spoken in Bolivia. The guides speak some fishing/shooting English, but all facilities have a full-time bilingual host.

LAUNDRY

Each lodge has daily laundry service. The laundry personnel pick up clothes and wash them while you are out and return them to your room, usually before dinner. In the fishing area, if the day is rainy, laundry may be returned later, as all clothing is air-dried.

CURRENCY

Most Latin American currencies fluctuate against the US dollar, so check exchange rates with your bank. Bolivian hotels and shops readily accept US dollars, so there is no need to exchange money, even for gratuities.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

Import allowances restrict import of excess amounts of liquor and tobacco (one carton of cigarettes or 25 cigars, and 2 liters of alcoholic beverages maximum). Beer, local liquor, soft drinks and wine are included at all lodges.

GUIDES

The Bolivian guides are hardworking individuals that aim to please. They do not speak English well but will help you select the right lures/flyes, help with fishing techniques and shooting, and assist with shells, drinks, etc. in the shooting area.

GRATUITIES

For fishing the suggested tip is around $60/day (60% to the guide and 40% to house staff). For the shooting the suggested tip is $50/day per hunter for the bird boys and $40/day per person for the house staff. Please do not bring traveler's checks for tipping purposes. Tens and twenties are appreciated and easily divided among the staff.

HEALTH/INSECTS

The lodges are remote. Those with serious health problems should think hard before traveling to a location with limited medical service. All lodges use bottled water and private, deep wells, making waterborne contagious diseases uncommon. Do not drink tap water in hotel rooms or public areas.

The fishing and hunting areas have some mosquitoes and biting gnats. Bring some long-sleeved clothing and insect repellent. Also, clothing with insect shield works well.

REGARDING INNOCULATIONS

Bolivia no longer requires a Yellow Fever vaccination to enter. Contact a local international medicine physician or the Center for Disease Control (CDC) 888-232-3299 or <http://www.cdc.gov> for information regarding Bolivia travel precautions and inoculations,

WEATHER/CLIMATE

Semi-tropical temperatures prevail in the fishing and shooting areas with daytime highs in the 80s to mid-90s. At night, temperatures drop to 60-70° F. Rain may occur throughout the week, so bring a lightweight rain suit.

CLOTHING

We recommend wearing loose fitting, lightweight cottons or synthetics (Orvis, Patagonia, ExOfficio insect shield). Long pants and long sleeves protect from sunburn and hide ankles and wrists from biting insects. The camp/lodge has daily laundry service, so please don't over pack (remember weight restrictions).

BOATS AND MOTORS

The fishing boats vary from aluminum sleds to local custom-made wooden boats. They are adequate for the various river and lagoon conditions, and are equipped with outboard motors, casting decks, comfortable seats, and coolers to store drinks and lunches.

SHOTGUNS/CHOKES

The Bolivian government is currently not issuing any temporary gun permits for taking shotguns into Bolivia. Hunters may use Bolivian Adventures' shotguns—their fine selections rent for $65/day. Most are new model Benelli and Beretta auto loaders in 20, 12 and 28 gauges.

AMMUNITION

Bolivian Adventures uses top quality shells from Europe and Argentina, available in 12, 20 and 28 gauges at $16/box (subject to change). At the end of your stay, a shell bill will be presented, payable in cash, check or credit/debit card (Visa or Mastercard only). A 2% fee is added for credit/debit cards.

TACKLE, CLOTHING & EQUIPMENT

SPINNING OR BAIT CASTING TACKLE

Take medium-heavy to heavy largemouth bass tackle with long-handled 6-to-7-foot rods and strong reels of at least 80 to 100 yards capacity with high-speed retrieve ratios. Bring at least two rods and reels. Bring 30-to-65-pound Spectra or Power Pro braided line or similar. Peacock bass do not require steel leaders, which take some action out of the lure. For payara and pacu, use a 30-pound plastic coated, bronze color, steel leader (Tyger Leader). Use a firm-action-tip rod, as the fish may exceed 20 lbs. We recommend breakdown travel rods.

The lodge provides spinning and baitcasting rods and reels and a basic lure package. Additional lures are available for purchase. For those who wish to bring their own lures, we recommend the following:

SPINNING OR BAITCASTING LURES

Topwater—a mixture of around 8 total lures for a full week

Borboleta Nitro Peacock Bass propeller lures	3 ½" – 5"	All colors
Heddon Zara Spook and One Nocker Spook	3 ¾" – 4 ½"	All colors
Heddon Baby or Magnum Torpedo	2 ½" – 3 5/16"	All colors

Spinners and Spoons—a mixture of 12 total lures

Johnson Silver Minnow Spoon	1/2 – 3/4 oz.	Silver, gold
Acme Kast Master	3/8 – 1 oz.	All colors

Diving Minnows—a mixture of around 8 total lures

Bomber Long A, Original	4 ½" – 6"	Fish colors
Rapala or Cordell Redfin shallow-diving jointed minnow	3 ½" – 5 ½"	All colors
Yo-Zuri Hydro Squid	7 ½"	Purple, pink, red
Yo-Zuri Crystal Minnow	4 ¼"	Fish colors
XCaliber Rattlebaits (rattletraps)	½ – ¾ oz.	All colors

NOTE: Single laser-sharp hooks work best for payara.

For spinning and bait casting tackle and lure questions, contact J.W. Smith at (800) 211-4753 or dsmith@rodgunresources.com.

FLY FISHING TACKLE

The aggressive jungle species are well suited to fly fishing with many fly-fishing world records to be set. Eight- or nine-weight, four-piece travel fly rods are recommended for payara. A six-weight fly rod is best for peacock bass. Reels should have a smooth drag, hold at least 100 yards of 30-pound. backing, and be spooled with weight forward bass taper or saltwater floating or clear intermediate sink-tip lines such as Orvis floating Wonderline, Rio or similar. Bring a 200-300 grain fast-sink-tip line for payara. Use 30-to-40 pound monofilament for leader/tippet. When fishing for payara and pacu, use 20-to-30 pound plastic coated, bronze color, steel leader (Tyger Leader). Take two rods and reels.

FLIES – 6 total topwater, 40-80 total underwater flies for a full week

Large Poppers (topwater)	2/0 to 3/0	red, white, yellow, chartreuse combinations
Minnow and deceiver patterns (subsurface)	2/0 to 3/0	chartreuse/white, blue/white, red/white, orange/white, yellow/white, all with flash
Spuddler or Clouser type payara flies	2/0 to 3/0	black/red, silver grey/red, blue and olive, with weighted eyes, all with flash
Clousers for sardinata	#4 to #2	red, white, yellow, chartreuse combinations

For flies, contact Feather-Craft Fly Fishing (800) 659-1707 <https://www.feather-craft.com/bolivia-fly-fishing>. Call J.W. Smith (800) 211-4753 with fly-fishing questions.

For payara, pacu, peacock bass and exotic catfish replicas we recommend: Advanced Fish Taxidermy – Josh Kelly – (214) 288-9814 – advancedfishtaxidermy@gmail.com - www.advancedfishtaxidermy.com.
